Student Life

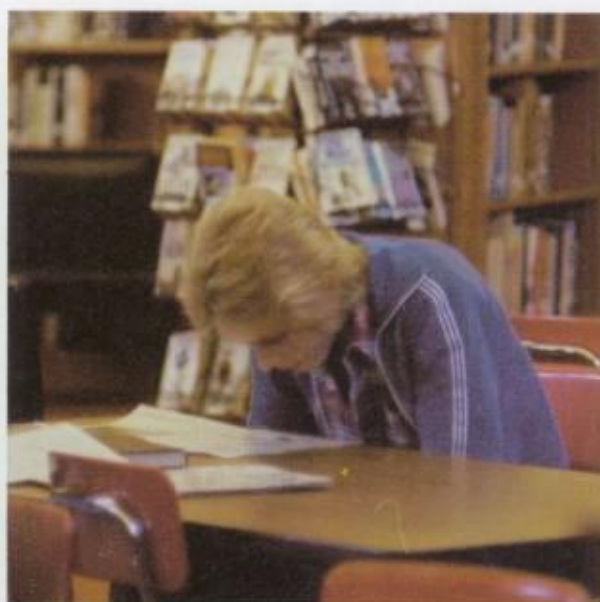

3

15

Makin' the grade is what Shorecrest is all about. With a variety of classes students learn as they choose. Sometimes great pressures are experienced, yet school has its lighter moments. Remember the applause over a dropped lunch tray or when someone set off the library beeper. And of course as temptation arose some Scots took part in what's known as "fakin' the grade."

1

2

one: Dave Gillman reads the fine print.
two: Roving eyes in English class.
three: Underclassmen discover the mysteries of Biology. four: With intense concentration, Chris Forseth finishes his mechanical drawing.

4

one: Todd Waddell limbers up with typing exercises. two: Field hockey players fight for the ball during a class scrimmage.

2

3

4

three: The old "crib notes in the clog" trick. four: Janet Stephens taking a chance on a "multiple guess" test.

1

one: Connie Young; life as a milk milk maker. two: Lyn Talbot rings up totals with a smile. three: Walt Green bagging it at Pay 'n Save.

3

1

On the Job

Walk into just about any local business and you'll probably find a Shorecrest student, earning money. Some students work for the experience, many for the extra cash, and others must work out of necessity. Whatever the reason, they all learn skills to help them later on.

2

one: Diane Tallent attending to hungry customers. two: Stan Ciez singing, "It's Joe Albertson's . . ." three: Packing and pushing it is Heidi Och-sner, professional boxgirl.

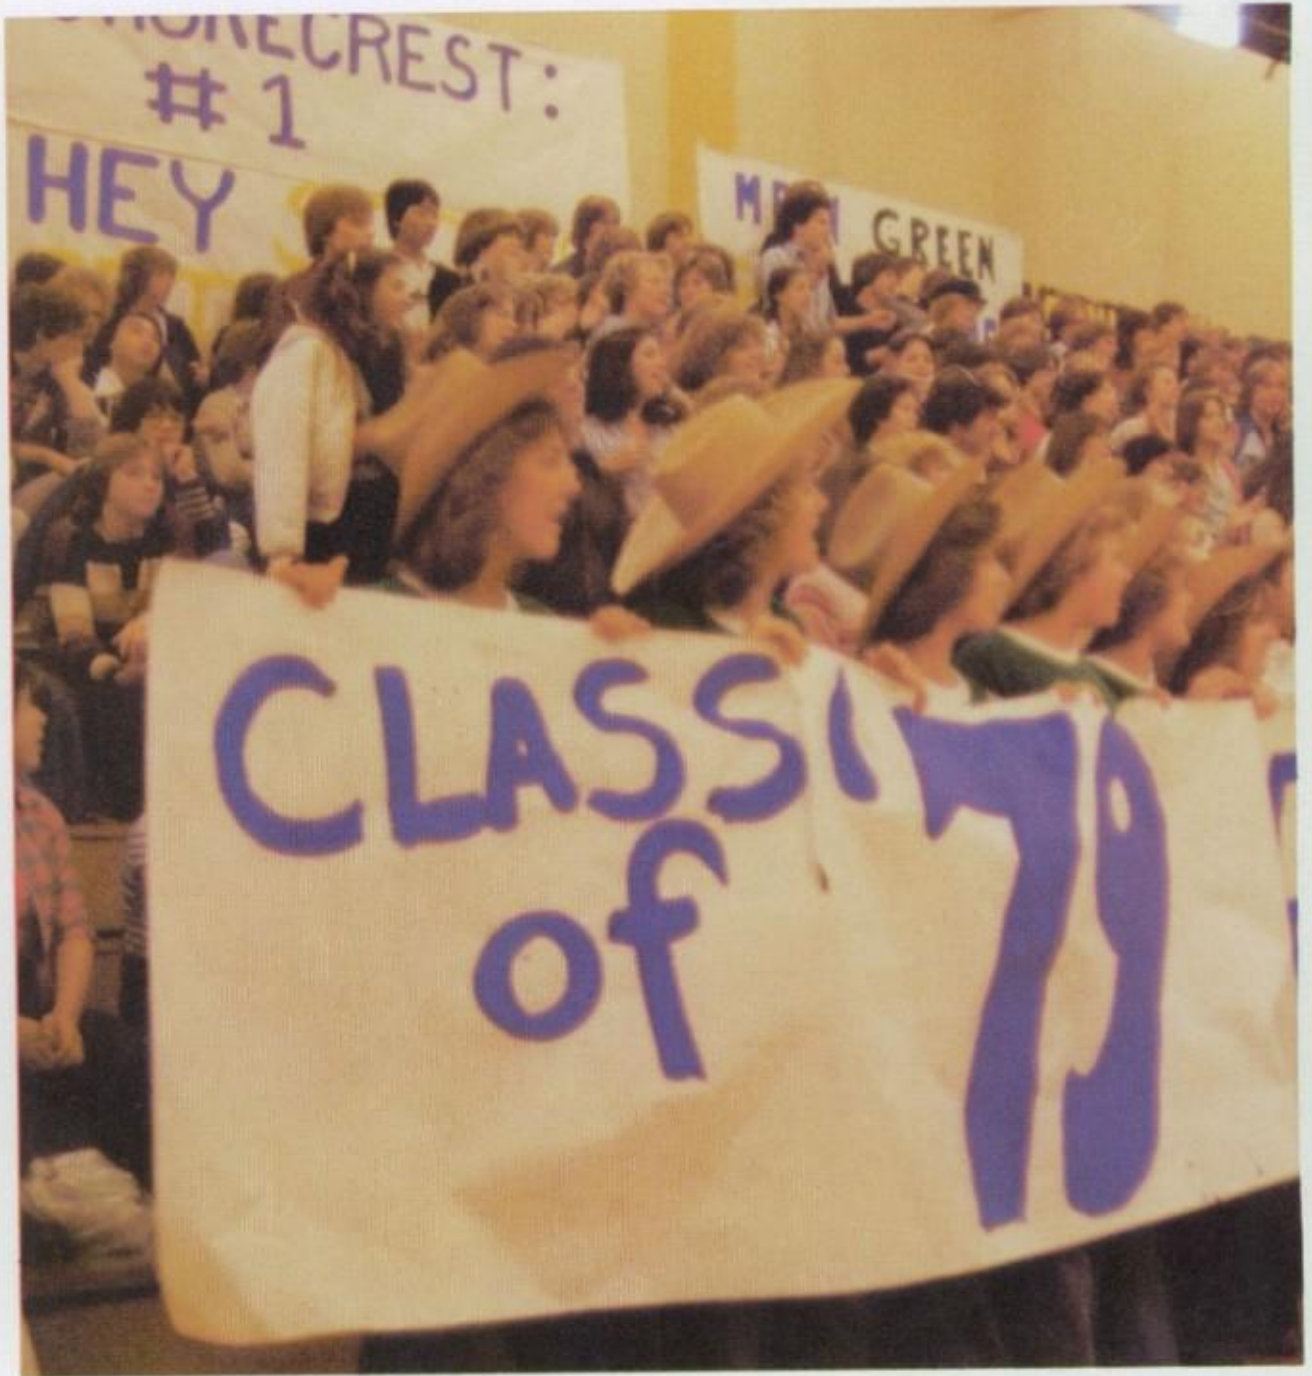

On the Loose

The key to fun at Shorecrest is individuality. At assemblies, during classes, or in the halls Scots do their own thing.

one: The wild Raineer intoxicates an assembly. two: Seniors show what it's all about. three: Tina Bauer says, "Thank you Weight Loss Clinic." four: Brian Finn sneaks a peek at the centerfold of "Ceramics Monthly."

1

2

3

4

2

6

Scot Spirit

School spirit is evident at Shorecrest. It's an individual thing which ties us together. Assemblies, guardian angels, and special days are all a part of the spirit that Highlanders are famous for. Students make an extra effort to amuse one another and boost school pride. That's why we are number one.

1

one: Guardian angel, Stacey Spearbeck, caught in the act.
two: The "Zitz" show their cool on 50's Day. three: King Tonesuncommon and Queen Brittatiti get down Egyptian style.

3

2

4

one: Sandi Fantozzi: The Hershey's Kiss that smooched Shorecrest. two: Big Otis — a symbol of our spirit. three: Outrageous football players make cheerleading look easy. four: Scots take the dare and participate in Halloween.

Homecoming

1

Following tradition the mighty Highlanders stomped on Shoreline 10-0. The presence of last year's songleaders and many alumni highlighted that morning's assembly. Spirit week and mums helped to build up the enthusiasm which exploded Friday night.

2

one: "Dropouts we would be," Ron Smith and Karin Butler demonstrate an alternative to studentness. two: "We've got spirit, yes we do!" three: Lassies perform a traditional sword dance.

Shorecrest students are never at a loss when it comes to having fun. Entertainment can mean anything from feasting at a formal luncheon, to watching a school drama production, or even waiting in line to see a blockbuster movie. No matter what your preference, what's important is enjoying yourself. So long as you have a good time — that's entertainment.

1

one: Craziess Young Life style; zany class competitions every week. two: The Seattle Center, always a good bet, offers entertainment for any mood. three: Seniors toast the Class of '79.

3

That's Entertainment

And just when you thought no one was looking; the whole school caught you in the act. These embarrassing, unforeseen moments prove that you can expect the unexpected at Shorecrest. Not only students participate in the hilarious antics that leave Scots at their wits' end, but teachers too.

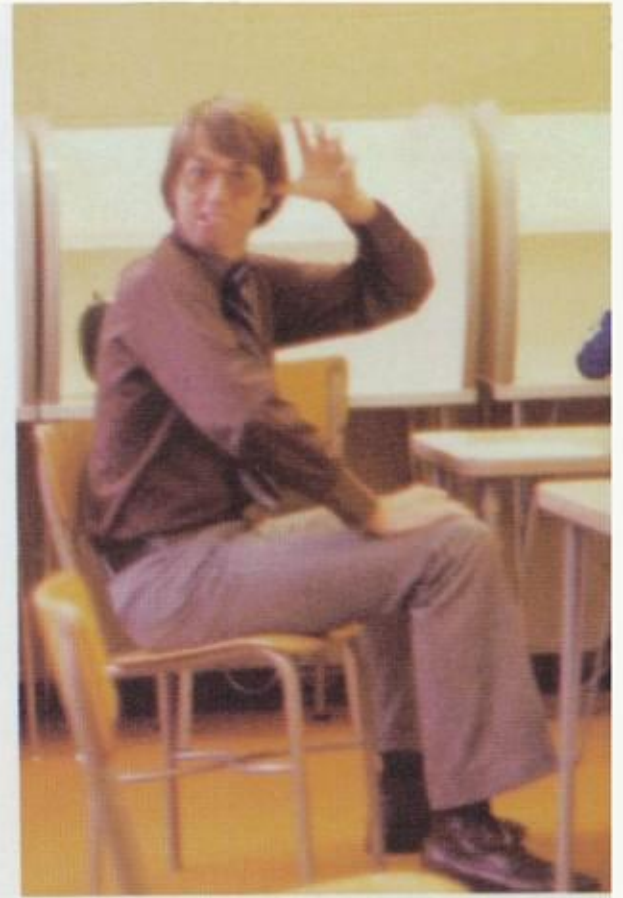

1

one: The Mafia hits Mr. Kovats with heavy ammo. two: "Honeybun" Hansen demonstrates his unique communication skills. three: Eric Baldwin and Danny Sue Reich as Scot spirit gets out of hand. four: Jim Cook shows his better side.

Once again the Mean Green Gold Machine had a successful season, grabbing their second straight Metro Division II championship. But unfortunately they lost the title game to Ingraham, 20-7. "I have never seen a more courageous group of players," praised Coach Court. The SC gridders displayed that courage when opposing Blanchet on a rain soaked field in a close game. With that and other triumphant wins the Scots posted an 8-2 season.

Field Hockey

The enthusiastic and successful field hockey team carried on fine traditions of previous squads, winning against some excellent competition. The Scots drove to a record of 4 wins, 2 ties, and 3 loses. The season's highlight was their trip to Vancouver, B.C., where the varsity team won all three of their games for the first time in eight years. "The first year players progressed very rapidly with the encouragement and leadership provided by the more experienced girls," Coach Triplett commented, especially praising Janet Stephens, Therese Harrild, and Jennifer Grigsby, her outstanding third year players.

Basketball

The 1978-79 Boys' Varsity Basketball Team distinguished itself for its tenacious defense. Short in stature but big in heart they backed down to no one. "They are as fine a group of young men as I've ever had the pleasure to coach, thank you for your efforts," praised Coach Enslin. The Cagers had a running record of 16 wins and 5 losses. One Season highlight was the strenuous 65-64 double over-time win against West Seattle. After gaining the Division II crown, but losing the Metro title game to Garfield, the Scotties bounced back, trouncing on West Seattle 69-40. Thus earning the No. 2 Metro spot and a ticket to state.

Junior Varsity

With a new coach, and a team comprised mostly of sophomores, Shorecrest's J.V. team played competitive basketball most of the time. A few midseason lapses in concentration, cost the team a truly fine record, but the group was able to regain their poise and finish strong. One highpoint of the season was a 58-55 win over Division II leaders Nathan Hale. Setting the tone for a well played second round of league play.

SC's wrestling team was led by many highly motivated seniors. The experience and assistance rendered by the returning starters was more than most league teams could handle. For this reason the matmen ended with a record 10 wins and 5 losses, and captured Metro's Division II Championship. The team grabbed with Shoreline for the Metro title but were taken down, losing by two points. They ended the season with a second place in Metro.

Loch Staff

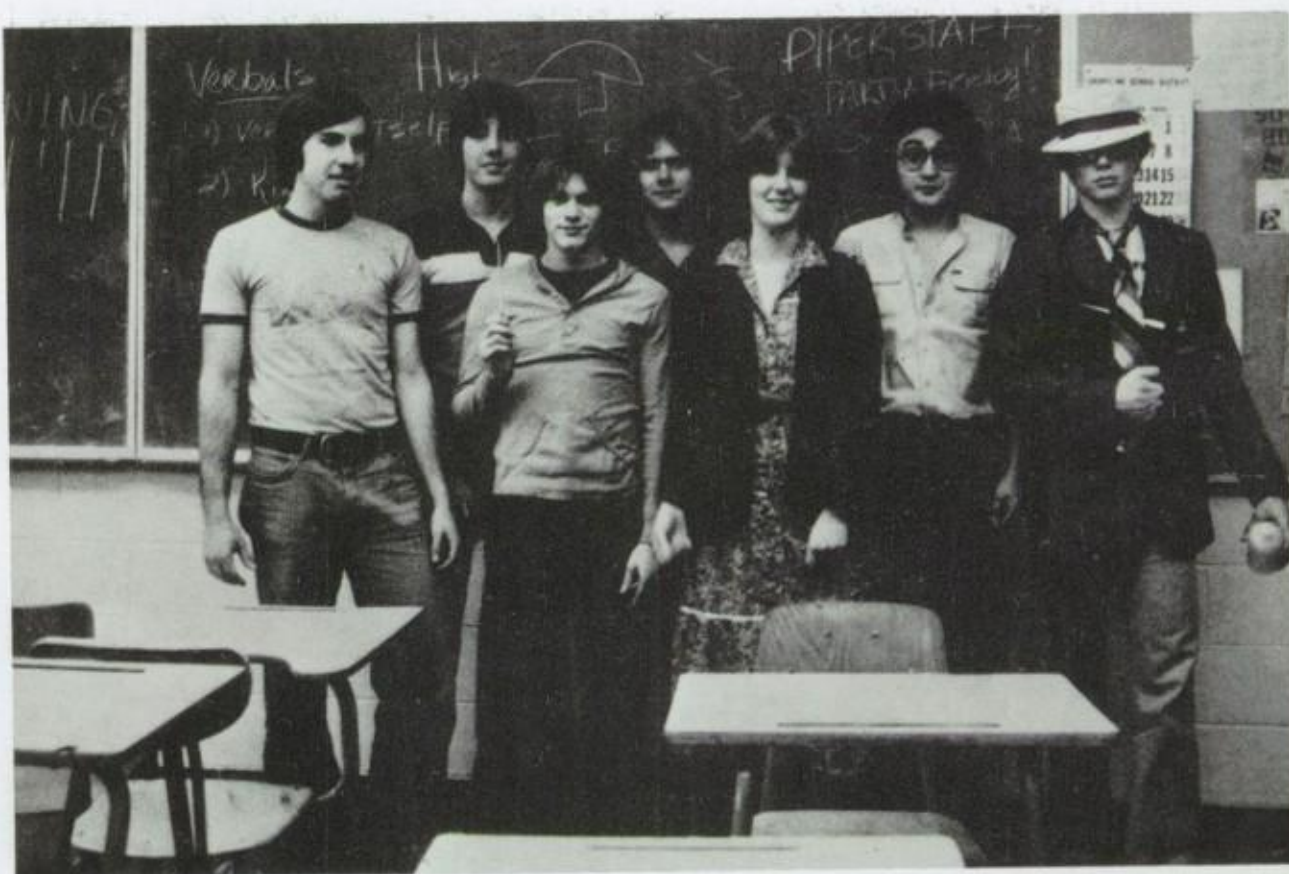

One glance at this group and you are sure to know the meaning of the word insane. Only through such crazy antics as Pepto Bismol raids, toast breakfasts, chalkboard creations, and Mr. Campbell impressions did the Loch Staff manage to survive and meet the deadlines which made this book possible. Of course, Loch Staff was not all fun, many hours were spent cropping pictures (so that noses would be intact), drawing layouts, etc. — all the things that have to be done and usually were by our frantic editor. Never the less, this has obviously been a rewarding experience for us and we hope that you enjoy it.

Piper Staff keeps itself busy year-round, putting out Shorecrest's newspaper the "Highland Piper." Photographers, reporters, and artists must have their work turned into the section editors a couple weeks before the issue is due. Once the editors have this material they design layouts and make corrections before everything is sent to the printer. The result of their hard work can be seen nearly every month when the paper is delivered to SC students and staff.

F.E.A.S.T.

The F.E.A.S.T. (Foods Education And Service Training) class was involved in quite a lot this year.

First semester they operated the Thistle Bakery which offered baked goods to the faculty. During the second semester they opened their restaurant on February seventh, prepared the dinner for Shorecrest's Medieval Banquet, and competed against other F.E.A.S.T. students in a state wide fair. They also catered for the plays, and other group functions.

DECA

Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA) is a vocational class which helps students reach their career goals. In this year-long two-hour class the students learn basic skills like operating a cash register, and making change, to more complex things such as display, management, and merchandising. The students also gain experience from running the Pipe Place Market, Shorecrest's student store, and other outside jobs. Shorecrest's DECA group competes against other schools from around the state, and in the spring they hold a week long promotion at Aurora Village.

Memories of Days Gone By

The 1978-1979 school year was packed full of memories, many are preserved within this book, while others remain only in our minds. For Shorecrest it meant the ending of several fine traditions and the beginning of new ones.

This was George Soltman's first year as the Highlander principal and Mr. Dawson's last as the Scot's Activities Coordinator; we will certainly miss his Pollock jokes. This was also Shorecrest's last year in the Metro League and we went out with a bang! Many of our athletic teams, including Football, X-Country, Wrestling, and Boys' Basketball, who finished tops in their division, placed well.

Overalls and disco proved to be extremely popular this year, and several good reasons for being late to school cropped up, including an early snowfall, a bad wind storm, and the last total eclipse of the sun to be seen this century.

These are just a few of the memorable things which happened this year at Shorecrest and we hope that you have many more to add to the list.

Spring Sports

Winter sports was a tough act to follow—especially when Boys' Basketball took 3rd in State, but Spring Sports kept SC's winning tradition alive. Besides their abundant talent, the Scots' drive and determination put them on top. Along with the endless hours of practice, sweat and strain, the teams had fun times and good memories to look back on. Leaving Metro victoriously, the Highlanders look forward to the more challenging competition of Wesco.

Track and Field

Swift runners and strong field competitors made up the young dedicated girls' team. It was Coach Lynn's first experience directing the talented Scotties. Everyone's combined efforts inspired the motivation which snapped the girls out of a slow start and into a great season.

Guided by the experience of Coach Court, the strength of the boys' team was unleashed. Though the group was mainly comprised of first year competitors, the Scots provided a strong challenge for other Metro League teams. Individuals shined in both the track and field events, allowing for a successful season.
